Policing America 2020-02-02 this book leads you down the not so hallowed halls of law enforcement of four decades ago it gives you an extra set of eyes and ears in the roll call lineups in the patrol cars and detective cruisers on the radio calls in the streets and in the interview rooms in the chases arrests gunfights fist fights hostage situations and investigations not on a movie set but the real thing you experience the sights the sounds the smells of a cop's days and nights you hear their words and those of the victims witnesses and suspects when they're not reading from a screenwriter's script or posturing for the cameras of a reality show it is populated not with fictional creations but real characters by every definition of those words the events emotions and language are all served raw no dressing no garnish the rookie's enthusiasm and optimism the experienced veteran's cynicism the boredom of routine the thrill of the pursuit the satisfaction of a job well done the frustration when events go bad the anger the hilarity the dark and irreverent sense of humor all pathways to the phd in human nature every street cop receives in a big city

The Real Policeman II 2013-09-12 retired ucla police officer terrence duren at the center of the 2006 ucla taser incident writes his memoir university sheepdog in westwood los angeles to set the record straight regarding his life and law enforcement career there were television news reports and articles written about the taser incident and of Terrence Duren's past some of these news reports and articles were unflattering and did not paint a complete picture of him and other officers involved in the taser incident in addition to the protests held at UCLA and other UC campuses there were high volume of telephone calls to UCLA with people voicing their anger and support over the taser incident these telephone calls came from people living in the United States and abroad there was such a high volume of phone calls that UCLA's telecommunications nearly broke down after a complete and thorough investigation the UCLA police chief as well as UCLA campus administrators concluded that Officer Duren did not violate policy with his use of the taser University Sheepdog in Westwood Los Angeles is a memoir that gives a better understanding of Officer Terrence Duren and his former colleagues this memoir is a story of Sheepdogs police officers protecting the sheep students faculty staff visitors and others from the wolves criminals some of the contents in this memoir will tell of Terrence Duren's officer involved shootings on and off campus his working undercover for six months buying narcotics from UCLA hospital employees his confrontation with members of the Nation of Islam his SWAT standoff with an armed suspect lewd and lascivious activity in the men's restrooms his mentoring victims and suspects flimflammer and more additionally this memoir has contents regarding Terrence's childhood growing up around Black Panthers his service in the United States Marine Corps in peace time and during the first Gulf War this memoir is unlike any other police story ever told as you read this memoir sit down and strap up because you are about to go on a ride

University Sheepdog in Westwood, L.A. 2016-08-18 some comments from lens students i want you to know that in my many years of being a student you easily rank as the best teacher i have ever had your skill and patience has made me infinitely more comfortable with my weapons and myself the next class you teach i ll be there in a heartbeat i m sure you don t have to be reminded of the multitude of people you have touched and the positive impact you have had on firearms training overall bob patridge len has taught me to effectively and safely use a handgun and rifle and for that i will always be grateful i look forward to the time i spend once or twice a week under his instruction len has created a wide range of firearms training programs out of virtually nothing and trained a sizeable and competent cadre of firearms instructors who like me greatly respects the man he is engaged with his students and always approachable students who have shot much longer than me comment on his great depth of knowledge and ability to improve their shooting he clearly loves to teach the material and his enthusiasm is contagious he has a great sense of humor and makes his classes a lot of fun but in spite of all of this the safety of his students is always his first concern dr noel pillman md i am a retired police officer and a former police firearms instructor for over 20 years i have been to numerous firearms training classes over the years but have not had any instructors more professional knowledgeable and dedicated to what they do then len breure maurice merabella len was my first real tactical instructor a few years ago he is a thorough safe and well versed instructor his teaching style is unique in a way that clearly conveys lessons and makes them easy to understand for experienced shooters and novices alike len brings a wealth of prior been there done that experience to the table that s an asset to his teaching and is rarely found in many of the new instructors that have come to the arena since most states have enacted concealed carry laws i continue to train with a variety of tactical instructors and am always amazed by how much of the information len taught me is still the foundation upon which i build mike vanmeeteren i have been fortunate enough to receive numerous training courses that were being taught by len breure in my opinion len is one of the best in the business it is very rewarding to be able to learn from someone who has the experience and knowledge to take tactical training to the next level jim bryant i first meet len while taking my minnesota concealed carry course in 2005 since that time i have taken every course that len teaches in my opinion len is the consummate professional who teaches with passion and an incredible degree of knowledge i would strongly urge anyone interested in personal protection to take lens courses mike pingel
