The True Foundation of Life 2015-08-12 all over the world a common question being asked by all is does god really love me people often feel rejected and are terrified of god there is bitterness in their hearts toward god and so they avoid coming to him yet the real reason is we are not truly aware of his love often we try to measure gods love with the standards of human love we ask questions such as if god loves me then why i am hurting why have i lost my job why is my marriage breaking why i am suffering with deadly sickness why is this happening to me why holocaust sudden death loss due to natural calamities 9 11 and shootings in schools then we always try to see where god is in that situation and we feel that if god loves me why did i get hurt does god still love me when i sin people all over the world are too guilty of what they have done or are still doing this guilt leads them to stay away from god since they think god is not going to accept them because of what they have done this book is a fresh new revelation of god to answer the questions of your life

How to Date Yourself and Fall in Love 2003-09 the corner provides an historical record of the life style of young men in what could be considered a typical neighborhood prior to and during the ww ii period in america toledo ohio is the setting of this documentary the specific scene is the corner of junction avenue and lucas street located in a solid polish american neighborhood the story could be written of many other neighborhoods and ethnic and racial groups throughout the united states it just so happens that the writer was a member of this particular group and neighborhood dramatic changes have taken place since the time period addressed in the corner ww ii impacted the way of life of all americans ethnic and racial neighborhoods and groups are still located throughout the country but on a far less scale nicknames a sign of popularity in most cases or of a special trait of the individual are not as common in today s society new and interesting developments have impacted the old meetings places and methods of communication amongst the young men throughout america television new and interesting hobbies and diverse civic religious and other group organizations that provide meeting places and many other features that make for a more effective life style of american youth have replaced the old but unforgettable meetings on the local corners unfortunately a part of american culture and history are lost for the ages the corner captures a capsule of a part of american life during an era that has literally disappeared from the the american scene

Manipulation 2014 in all groups from couples to nation states people influence one another much of this influence is benign for example giving advice to friends or serving as role models for our children and students some forms of influence however are clearly morally suspect such as threats of violence and blackmail a great deal of attention has been paid to one form of morally suspect influence namely coercion less attention has been paid to what might be a more pervasive form of influence manipulation the essays in this volume address this relative imbalance by focusing on manipulation examining its nature moral status and its significance in personal and social life they address a number of central questions what counts as manipulation how is it distinguished from coercion and ordinary rational persuasion is it always wrong or can it sometimes be justified and if so when is manipulative influence more benign than coercion can one manipulate unintentionally how does being manipulated to act bear on one s moral responsibility for so acting given various answers to these questions what should we think of practices such as advertising and seduction
