the usaf introduced the f 4c phantom ii into the vietnam war in april 1965 from ubon rtab thailand the f 4c d soon became the air force's principal fighter over the north, destroying 85 MiGs by the close of 1968. This book describes how the USAF turned a gunless naval interceptor into an opponent to the more nimble MiGs. It explains how the Air Force gradually followed US Navy initiatives in the use of the F-4's missile armament but employed very different tactics and aircrew training. The roles of key personalities such as Col Robin Olden are discussed together with armament and markings crews and engagements.

although the Crusader was built first and foremost as a Navy interceptor as has often been the tradition with US fighters a photo reconnaissance variant was also produced. The photo bird's first operational test came in the autumn of 1962 when its overflights of Cuba alerted the world to the likely presence of medium range ballistic missiles on the Caribbean island. The reconnaissance Crusader's next action came during the long years of the Vietnam War. This volume is the second of two in the combat aircraft series devoted to the Crusader. The first title again by Peter Mersky having covered the F-8 fighter variants and their MiG killing exploits during the Vietnam War.

This book assesses the implications of the COVID-19 pandemic for the European Union (EU) as well as its response in dealing with an overarching multidimensional crisis with consequences extending beyond public health safety to political, economic, legal and institutional arenas. It argues the pandemic represents a symmetric crisis cutting across countries with different social, economic and political characteristics and which yet despite favouring cooperative solutions at the supranational level has largely been met with initial responses of a national even local nature so how well did the eu perform as a crisis manager in the pandemic crisis this book will be of key interest to scholars students and readers of crisis pandemic and health management european union politics and governance
