ages achieved the greatest dream of all uniting the mythical with the practical painting great panoramas of life meditating upon the unseen and the elizabethan age rediscovered heroism and the power of personality after the free discourse and argument of the seventeenth century with its resulting wars and fragmentation a more cohesive nation emerged one that came to believe in reason and mans own mind while the romantic poets who followed show sometimes disastrously the wildness of individualism of diversity apart from social integration and a common faith the long victorian afternoon and golden evening of the nineteenth century saw an expansion of these tendencies and a renewing of faith but there has been no significant new development from the revolution and romanticism of a century earlier rather the movement has played itself out with post modernism arthur pink wrote the holy spirit to help christians better understand the third person of the godhead and further their christian development in the holy spirit pink addresses such matters as the third person of the godhead the personality of the holy spirit the work of the spirit honoring the spirit and much more the need for the study of the holy spirit is real and pressing ignorance of the third person of the godhead is most dishonoring to him and highly injurious to ourselves the late george smeaton of scotland began his excellent work upon the holy spirit by saying wherever christianity has been a living power the doctrine of the holy spirit has uniformly been regarded equally with the atonement and justification by faith as the article of a standing or falling church the distinctive feature of christianity as it addresses itself to man s experience is the work of the spirit which not only elevates it far above all philosophical speculation but also above every other form of religion arthur walkington was an english christian evangelist and biblical scholar known for his staunchly calvinist and puritan like teachings though born to christian parents prior to conversion he migrated into a theosophical society an occult gnostic group popular in england during that time and quickly rose in prominence within their ranks his conversion came from his father s patient admonitions from scripture it was the verse proverbs 14 12 there is a way which seemeth right unto a man but the end thereof are the ways of death which particularly struck his heart and compelled him to renounce theosophy and follow jesus what was the holy spirit doing at the cross of jesus christ jesus death and resurrection are central to god s reconciliation with humanity does the holy spirit s work pause between gethsemane and the resurrection what does the phrase through the eternal spirit in hebrews 9 14 mean in this book tan examines the perspectives of john vernon taylor jürgen moltmann and john d zizioulas from whom three views of the spirit s role at the cross are discerned the spirit as the bond of love between the father and the son the spirit as the son s coworker enabler and power and the spirit as the unifier who unites humanity to the son in addition karl barth provides the intriguing concept of the spirit as divine judge along with the father and the son and specifically the one who carries out god s judgment in jesus christ the elect integrating these theological perspectives with an in depth examination of the manuscript and exegetical and hermeneutical history of hebrews 9 14 tan offers another way of understanding the role of the spirit at the cross christ as the father s pneumatic crucible in whom sinful humanity is judged destroyed and reborn through the power of the holy spirit in the past few decades there have been an increasing number of authors and movements that reject the classic protestant understanding of justification e g the new perspective on paul auburn avenue theology the renewal movement etc while the various proposals differ in many respects they are generally united in their rejection of justification as a legal declaration made by the father about the believer based on the work of the son in particular among renewal pentecostal charismatic authors there have been several attempts to redefine justification insisting that it is an umbrella term incorporating numerous redemptive ideas rather than a declaration of the believer s righteousness these attempts are in part rooted in the absence of any overt pneumatology in the doctrine's typical formulation one need only read the above sentences to see that there is no mention of the holy spirit this book addresses these and other concerns especially by renewal authors and demonstrate that the doctrine is in fact pneumatologically informed albeit latently rather than blatantly as a result there is no need to redefine the theology of the reformers and their successors
