to travel by ship to america his father jake has gone ahead to find a job and secure housing for his family as he feels there is trouble brewing in poland at this time opportunities in america abound and it is rapidly ascending as a world power a kopek in the dust follows abe as he maneuvers his way through life and achieves his american dream as an academic physicist even so he struggles to find a spiritual identity that is compatible with both his commitment to reason and his loyalty to his jewish heritage in his search he finds a sustaining spirituality rooted in the natural world and strengthened by a great and tender love and his links to a unitarian congregation and its minister as abes journey unfolds against the backdrop of the often tragic history of the first half of the twentieth century he discovers some surprising connections to his roots in europe multifaceted this historical novel narrates an immigrant tale provides a reflection on religion gives a view of the physicists world and tells a love story out of the dust is a collection of new poems by activist leader poet and editor janice mirikitani after being named san francisco s second poet laureate in 2000 this fifth book of poems from mirikitani was written in response to the terrorist attacks on september 11 2001 drawing from her own background as a sansei third generation japanese american mirikitani reflects on the many ways we connect through the dust and our ability to rise and renew ourselves from this place from the dust of the world trade center in new york to the retaliatory ashes of the dead in america s war in afghanistan the poems in this volume seek to explicate the connections of our humanity to the reactionary profiling of people of middle eastern descent and different ethnicities comparing these choices to the incarceration of japanese americans during world war ii mirikitani s poems cover topics about rape incest the continued struggle for justice and economic equality and the poet s experiences throughout her 50 year career at glide foundation and church in san francisco where she has helped to create groundbreaking programs for the poor women and children and those who are healing from sexual assault violence and abuse though constructed from a depth of experiences with struggle these poems also erupt in celebration of marriage daughters and the discovery of self through diversity
