the proliferation of electric communication and power networks have drawn wires through american landscapes like vines through untended gardens since 1844 but these wire networks are more than merely the tools and infrastructure required to send electric messages and power between distinct places the iconic lines themselves send powerful messages the wiry webs above our heads and the towers rhythmically striding along the horizon symbolize the ambiguous effects of widespread industrialization and the shifting values of electricity and landscape in the american mind in power lined daniel l wuebben weaves together personal narrative historical research cultural analysis and social science to provide a sweeping investigation of the varied influence of overhead wires on the american landscape and the american mind wuebben shows that overhead wires from morse s telegraph to our high voltage grid not only carry electricity between american places but also create electrified spaces that signify and complicate notions of technology nature progress and most recently renewable energy infrastructure power lined exposes the subtle influences wrought by the wiring of the nation and shows that even in this age of wireless devices perceptions of overhead lines may be key in progressing toward a more sustainable energy future this work by esther singleton is for everyone who is interested in french and english furniture since the renaissance period it provides a comprehensive and precise view of the different periods or styles a chapter is devoted to each period in this volume singleton 1865 1930 was a creative american author and journalist she wrote a huge number of books on subjects such as furniture european cities and the shakespeare garden content includes louis xiii period jacobean period louis xiv period queen anne period early georgian period louis xv period chippendale period louis xvi period adam period heppelwhite period sheraton period empire period the statistics of immigration and passenger movement are included in the report on foreign commerce to 1895 and for 1893 1894 are also published separately thematic unit based on ladybugs teacher guide with activities plans and management tools reproduction of the original french and english furniture by esther singleton
