immigrant communities evince particular and deep relationship to place building on this self evident premise walk the barrio adds the less obvious claim that to write about place you must experience place thus in this book about immigrants writing and place cristina rodriguez walks neighborhood streets talks to immigrants interviews authors and puts herself physically in the spaces that she seeks to understand the word barrio first entered the english lexicon in 1833 and has since become a commonplace not only of american speech but of our literary imagination indeed what draws rodriguez to the barrios of los angeles new york miami and others is the work of literature that was fueled and inspired by those neighborhoods walk the barrio explores the ways in which authors william archila richard blanco angie cruz junot díaz salvador plascencia héctor tobar and helena maría viramontes use their u s hometowns as both setting and stylistic inspiration asking how these writers innovate upon or break the rules of genre to render in words an embodied experience of the barrio rodriguez considers for example how the spatial map of new brunswick impacts the mobility of díaz s female characters or how graffiti influences the aesthetics of viramontes s novels by mapping each text s fictional setting upon the actual spaces it references in what she calls barriographies rodriguez reveals connections between place narrative form and migrancy this first person interdisciplinary approach presents an innovative model for literary studies as it sheds important light on the ways in which transnationalism transforms the culture of each latinx barrio effecting shifts in gender roles the construction of the family definitions of social normativity and racial ethnic national and linguistic identifications

Los fantasmas de la Soledad

2015-09-09

narracion del género realismo mágico con tintes existencialistas en dónde el protagonista sumido en la marginación social explora el sin sentido de la vida material y la búsqueda de la verdad espiritual que da razón de ser a la existencia la respuesta al papel que desempeñamos en el universo al significado de la vida y la armonía universal emergen como un secreto casi sagrado entre el lodo de una sociedad perdida y podrida y qué sin embargo al ser alcanzado no exonera del sufrimiento combustible necesario para la trascendencia del ser una historia tal vez trágica pero a la vez refrescante para el alma cuyo mensaje acompañará a los que solitarios caminan sin rumbo a pasos ciegos en la oscuridad de la vida

Matters of the Sea / Cosas del mar

matters of the sea cosas del mar is a commemorative bilingual chapbook that beautifully reproduces richard blanco s stirring poem presented during the historic reopening ceremony of the united states embassy in havana cuba on august 14 2015 matters of the sea is one of the most emotionally complex and personal poems i ve ever written invested with all my love for the people of two countries that are part of my very being as with the presidential inauguration in 2013 i am once again humbled and honored to participate as a poet in another historic moment of such significance i m elated by the power of poetry to mark such important communal moments and to be a catalyst for change and understanding by reaching deep into our emotional selves and connecting us to our shared humanity richard blanco
