Department of Agriculture 1984 south africa has done well to systematically expand its educational system and to lengthen the schooling experience of successive learner cohorts but the quality of the output from the school system has been questioned in seeking to identify the reasons for this it is important to relate educational outputs competencies as measured for instance by examinations or standardized tests to inputs determining the relative contributions of the inputs of the school the household and the individual learner to educational outputs is not straightforward particularly since very little educational production function analysis has been undertaken in south africa until recently no south african school data has incorporated test results school characteristics and information on the household circumstances of individual learners necessary for this kind of analysis however the results from a survey of a sample of schools involved in the large scale quality learning project qlp funded by the business trust have yielded such data the qlp data set offers a new analytical opportunity to address the question what are the effects of social and economic variables on educational outcomes in the qlp schools

Simple Steps for Fourth Grade 2015-12-14 in liberia and sierra leone strategies to reform and reconstruct the security sector have centred on re establishing the state s monopoly on the use of force however little attention is given to the array of non state actors that often play a major role in how individuals and communities experience security rebuilding the security sector in post conflict societies perceptions from urban liberia and sierra leone seek to address this gap by applying a human security approach to security provision across these two contexts a key point of departure is that in the long run there can be no alternative within post conflict societies to a locally owned security sector operationalising the concept of local ownership means that internationally supported security sector reform ssr activities need to reflect these local realities as explored within this study fostering synergies between state and non state security actors may therefore offer an important avenue to support more sustainable legitimate ssr efforts judy smith
