a thorough investigation of how jane jacobs s ideas about the life and economy of great cities grew from her home city scranton jane jacobs s first city vividly reveals how this influential thinker and writer s classic works germinated in the once vibrant mid size city of scranton pennsylvania where jane spent her initial eighteen years in the 1920s and 1930s scranton was a place of enormous diversity and opportunity small businesses of all kinds abounded and flourished quality public education was available to and supported by all and even recent immigrants could save enough to buy a house opposing political parties joined forces to tackle problems and citizens worked together for the public good through interviews with contemporary scrantonians and research of historic newspapers city directories and vital records author glenna lang has uncovered scranton as young jane experienced it and shows us the lasting impact of her growing up in this thriving and accessible environment readers can follow the development of jane s acute observational abilities from childhood through her passion in early adulthood to understand and write about what she saw reflecting jane s belief in trusting one s own direct observation above all this volume has been richly illustrated with historic and modern color images that help bring alive a lost scranton the book demonstrates why at the end of jacobs s life her thoughts and conversations increasingly returned to scranton and the potential for cohesion and inclusiveness in all cities chapter i beth receives an invitation professor de graf was sorting the mail at the breakfast table here s a letter for you beth said he and tossed it across the cloth to where his daughter sat the girl raised her eyebrows expressing surprise it was something unusual for her to receive a letter she picked up the square envelope between a finger and thumb and carefully read the inscription miss elizabeth de graf cloverton ohio turning the envelope she found on the reverse flap a curious armorial emblem with the word elmhurst then she glanced at her father her eyes big and somewhat startled in expression the professor was deeply engrossed in a letter from benjamin lowenstein which declared that a certain note must be paid at maturity his weak watery blue eyes stared rather blankly from behind the gold rimmed spectacles his flat nostrils extended and compressed like those of a frightened horse and the indecisive mouth was tremulous at the best the professor was not an imposing personage he wore a dressing gown of soiled quilted silk and linen not too immaculate but his little sandy moustache and the goatee that decorated his receding chin were both carefully waxed into sharp points an indication that he possessed at least one vanity
