~~through spain before and during the spanish civil war and the inspiration that he drew from the baroque architecture he encountered there the origins of carpentier s uniquely baroque style are found in his endeavour to create a period ambience in his historical fictions through descriptions of visual arts and architectural settings and parodies of the literary style of spanish golden age writers medusa s gaze is used as a metaphor for the petrifying power of the baroque as a weapon of european dominance by wielding the same weapon in an act of postcolonial defiance carpentier enabled a reassertion of latin american culture and laid the foundations for the 1960s boom in the latin american novel steve wakefield is visiting research fellow at the university of new south wales australia~~ the portuguese encounter with the peoples of south asia and brazil set foundational precedents for european imperialism jesuit missionaries were key participants in both regions as they sought to reconcile three commitments to local missionary spaces to a universal church and to the global portuguese empire the jesuits forged a religious vision of empire ananya chakravarti explores both indigenous and european experiences to show how these missionaries learned to negotiate everything with the diverse peoples they encountered and that nothing could simply be imposed yet jesuits repeatedly wrote home in language celebrating triumphal impositions of european ideas and practices upon indigenous people in the process while empire was built through distinctly ambiguous interactions europeans came to imagine themselves in imperial moulds in this dynamic in which the difficult lessons of empire came to be learned and forgotten repeatedly chakravarti demonstrates an enduring and overlooked characteristic of european imperialism this is a reader devoted to the life and writings of bartolomé de las cascas 1485 1566 and the effects of his legacy on the age of the encounter when europeans principally but not exclusively spaniards conquered the americas las casas is arguably the most important figure of the encounter age after christopher columbus and las cascas is well known to those who teach western civilization various survey histories of spain and latin america and atlantic history he is known principally as the author of the black legend as well as the protector of american indians he was one of the pioneers of the human rights movement and a christian activist who invoked biblical scripture to interpret what was right and wrong in the great age of the encounter he was also one of the first and most thorough chroniclers of the conquest and a biographer who saved the diary of columbus s first voyage for posterity through his history of the indies for the journal of that voyage was lost he was also an innovator in political theory and a proto ethnographer and his contributions in geography philosophy and literature are no less significant that he was also crusty self righteous judgmental given to gross exaggerations and not a very loving christian adds the very human dimension of failure to his character this reader provides the most wide ranging and concise anthology of las casas writings in translation ever made available but contains not only excerpts from his most well known texts but also his writings on political philosophy and law which are largely
