one of the ten best books of the new york times book review winner of the los angeles times book prize now a miniseries from hulu starring james franco on november 22 1963 three shots rang out in dallas president kennedy died and the world changed what if you could change it back in this brilliantly conceived tour de force stephen king who has absorbed the social political and popular culture of his generation more imaginatively and thoroughly than any other writer takes readers on an incredible journey into the past and the possibility of altering it it begins with jake epping a thirty five year old english teacher in lisbon falls maine who makes extra money teaching ged classes he asks his students to write about an event that changed their lives and one essay blows him away a gruesome harrowing story about the night more than fifty years ago when harry dunning s father came home and killed his mother his sister and his brother with a sledgehammer reading the essay is a watershed moment for jake his life like harry s like america s in 1963 turning on a dime not much later his friend al who owns the local diner divulges a secret his storeroom is a portal to the past a particular day in 1958 and al enlists jake to take over the mission that has become his obsession to prevent the kennedy assassination so begins jake s new life as george amberson in a different world of ike and jfk and elvis of big american cars and sock hops and cigarette smoke everywhere from the dank little city of derry maine where there s dunning business to conduct to the warmhearted small town of jodie texas where jake falls dangerously in love every turn is leading eventually of course to a troubled loner named lee harvey oswald and to dallas where the past becomes heart stoppingly suspenseful and where history might not be history anymore time travel has never been so believable or so terrifying
