the history of cinema and notably that of post war italian cinema can only be understood adequately in the context of other contiguous cultural disciplines world literature including that of france germany and russia played a key role in the development of post war italian film and the cinematic technique it has come to embody moving away from the usual modes of defining this period a trajectory that begins with neorealism and ends with bertolucci author carlo testa offers proof that coming to terms with literary texts is an essential step toward understanding the motion pictures they influenced the means of recreating literature for the screen has changed drastically over the last half century as has the impact of different national traditions on italian cinema testa s work is the first to explicitly and deliberately link postwar italian cinema to general intellectual concerns such as the relationship between literary authors and cinematic auteurs moreover his analysis of the impact of french german and russian cultures on italy brings forth a new reading of italian cinema a new paradigm for exploring complex issues of authorship culture and art in the twentieth century in italy there was a man who during his lifetime 1903 1994 became a legend for those who did not know him and a great spiritual teacher for those who were lucky enough to meet him his name was gustavo rol and he was an upper class gentleman who dressed elegantly possessed an encyclopedic body of knowledge the soul of an artist and the spirit of a mystic as a young man like prince siddhartha he obtained enlightenment even though he never declared as much openly one of the consequences was that he began to manifest an impressive range of possibilities that are generally referred to as paranormal clairvoyance telepathy precognition bilocation levitation telekinesis and many more this anthology collects all of the anecdotes recounted over more than 60 years from numerous witnesses including famous personalities from the italian and international cultural scene according to rol in the future science will be capable of explaining these phenomena film has shaped modern society in part by changing its cultures of memory film music memory reveals that this change has rested in no small measure on the mnemonic powers of music as films were consumed by growing american and european audiences their soundtracks became an integral part of individual and collective memory berthold hoeckner analyzes three critical processes through which music influenced this new culture of memory storage retrieval and affect films store memory through an archive of cinematic scores in turn a few bars from a soundtrack instantly recall the image that accompanied them and along with it the affective experience of the movie hoeckner examines films that reflect directly on memory whether by featuring an amnesic character a traumatic event or a surge of nostalgia as the history of cinema unfolded movies even began to recall their own history through quotations remakes and stories about how cinema contributed to the soundtrack of people s lives ultimately film music memory demonstrates that music has transformed not only what we remember about the cinematic experience but also how we relate to memory itself

Le XXe siècle italien a vu naître un homme qui toute sa vie durant 1903-1994 fut à la fois une légende aux yeux de ceux qui n'eurent pas l'occasion de le rencontrer et un maître spirituel pour quiconque avait eu la chance de le fréquenter. Il s'appelait Gustavo Adolfo Rol, issu de la haute bourgeoisie toujours élégamment vêtu, il était doté d'une culture encyclopédique qui renforçaient une âme d'artiste et un esprit mystique comme le prince Siddhartha, il avait atteint l'illumination dans sa jeunesse mais n'en parlait jamais ouvertement. Cet éveil lui permit notamment de développer de nombreuses possibilités que l'on qualifie généralement de paranormales : clairvoyance, télépathie, précognition, bilocation, lévitation ou encore télékinésie. Pour n'en citer que quelques-unes, la présente anthologie réunit toutes les anecdotes racontées pendant plus d'un demi-siècle par des dizaines de témoins dont certains comptent parmi les plus grands de la culture italienne et internationale.

this book is about the relationship between belief credibility and credulity in post reformation catholicism it argues that starting from the end of the sixteenth century and due to different political intellectual cultural and theological factors credibility assumed a central role in post reformation catholic discourse this led to an important reconsideration of the relationship between natural reason and supernatural grace and consequently to novel and significant epistemological and moral tensions from the perspective of the relationship between credulity credibility and belief early modern catholicism emerges not as the apex of dogmatism and intellectual repression but rather as an engine for promoting the importance of intellectual judgment in the process of embracing faith to be sure finding a balance between conscience and authority was not easy for early modern catholics this book seeks to elucidate some of the difficulties anxieties and tensions caused by the novel insistence on credibility that came to dominate the theological and intellectual landscape of the early modern catholic church in addition to shedding light on early modern catholic culture this book helps us to understand better what it means to believe for the most part in modern western society we don t believe in the same things as our early modern predecessors even when we do believe in the same things it is not in the same way but believe we do and thus understanding how early modern people addressed the question of belief might be useful as we grapple with the tension between credibility credulity and belief
