the revised manuscript for the ww1 book sponsored originally by westmeath community development in 2011 focuses upon kilbeggan in the irish republic while making comparisons with the experiences of similar towns in counties westmeath and offaly the suffering heroism and poignant accounts of so many young men sacrificing their lives become alive in what would otherwise remain as the forgotten history of long since abandoned irish regiments many youngsters also returned as physically and mentally scarred wrecks to a civilian existence ill equipped to help them one surprise from the study concerns the number of older recruits a few even over fifty years who served as infantrymen the study also recalls defunct regiments like the connaught rangers or the leinster regiment which gained four victoria cross awards in ww1 military units emerge with less familiar names for instance the inland water transport corps the study extends to the wider local civilian communities drawn into the european war of 1914 1918 especially the enormous contribution made by the remarkable women involved in relief work and the tragedy sometimes resulting from that commitment an example from the region is venice c h hackett a voluntary aid detachment vad nurse who returned ill to london from abroad only to die in october 1918 from the raging spanish flu her remains lie in liss county offaly yet countless names of civilian helpers are unknown who indeed answered the bugle call

no military unit not even the sas has been more glamourised fictionalised or been the subject of more myth making than the french foreign legion but despite the hype quality first hand accounts of life in the ranks of france s cosmopolitan elite colonial force are relatively rare this is one of the finest of that select group it is the work of the adopted son of the famous russian writer maxim gorki pechkoff served in the legion during the great war and later in north africa he was on peacekeeping duties in algeria and fought in the rif wars of the 1920s against the forces of the great tribal guerilla leader abd el krim this memoir is based on the author s diaries and was written while he was recovering from wounds in a hospital in the moroccan capital rabat pechkoff gives vivid accounts of his rough tough legion comrades and of fierce military action he was one of a special group mobile assigned to relieving legion outposts besieged by the rif rebels and his accounts of the fighting pays tribute to the heroism of both sides a first class military memoir which gives the truth behind the romantic beau geste image this book has a foreword by the famous french writer andre maurois a map of morocco the music for the legion s anthem marche de la legion etrangere a frontispiece drawing of a legionnaire and an appendix giving a brief history of the legion from its foundation in 1831 a must have book for all lovers of the legion and its literature and for all students of desert and guerilla warfare

The Bugle Call 1871

when you hear the bugle call subtitled battling ptsd and the unraveling of the american conscience is a compelling poignant and straightforward presentation of sickness and healing righteousness opposing wrong doing and the eventual triumph of the human spirit despite overwhelming obstacles and barriers this very personal account of war and its aftermath was written to benefit combat veterans agonized by severe and chronic post traumatic stress disorder ptsd composed by one who is living the nightmare one of their own a fellow warrior in the broader scope this account is meant to help them and their friends and loved ones to better understand this overwhelming psychological involuntary and innate response to continual life threatening situations this book will bring them to the realization that they are not alone in their sufferings help is as close as the nearest veterans administration medical center and any caring individual who has read and benefited from the pages of this presentation furthermore it is meant to assist comfort understand and equally as important accept those who gave their best to defend and protect us it s not only the gi i am talking about but also the police officer the fireman and the rescue personnel all those who are damned if they do and damned if they don t all the brave men and women who place their lives in jeopardy everyday for the sake of others for the sake of something bigger than self this presentation addresses every symptom obstacle or negative circumstance a ptsd victim will likely experience or encounter and must overcome if he or she expects some semblance of peace love success respect and dignity in their lives victims of terror and natural disasters will benefit from this writing as well in my opinion there is little if any significant difference between combat ptsd and ptsd manifested as a result of traumatic events that occur in the civilian world this work is not an ordinary run of the mill shoot em up military memoir ptsd negatively impacts every interpersonal relationship this book clearly and frankly relates in vivid detail how ptsd affects victims in the work place and social settings in today s fast paced very competitive high stress work a day world virtually every victim s well being employment and or career is at risk there are no immunities or safe harbors this account addresses those many complex issues and more all who read this narrative will profit from its message spouses grown children friends relatives employers supervisors human resource managers co workers and the general public will benefit from first hand knowledge and look with newfound compassion and understanding on those who defend ed their life limbs and freedoms on a daily basis
