how are christians to think about the intellectual tasks that make up everyday life in the modern world it is clear we are not to do so as the world does but what does it look like to engage christianly in our thinking in the first part of the series god's gifts for the christian life j alexander rutherford shows how the bible equips us to confidently engage in the interpretation of and engagement with the word of god and the world he has created in god's rich mercy he has enabled us to know him his word and his world in a world where it is preposterous and arrogant to claim to know anything certainly we are in desperate need of renewed foundations in god's gifts for the christian life see some of the ways that god through his limitless power has made available to us everything necessary for life and godliness 2 peter 1 3

to any attentive observer the western world is in serious trouble it shows the signs of languishing under a devastating disease this is clearer nowhere else than in the realm of epistemology the study of truth and how we attain it here the belief in human autonomy the freedom of individual men and women to interpret the world and live within it as they see fit has slowly eroded any foundation for knowledge or morality the result is a society adrift floating wherever the tide might take it if the disease ravaging our society is the belief in human autonomy the cure is submission once again to the god who created this world at least that is the argument of the gift of knowing the author argues that apart from submission to god as he has revealed himself in the christian bible there is no firm foundation for truth or a trustworthy way of attaining it however through his revelation in scripture god has given his people a foundation for knowing the world he has created and living within it and waned during this period they survived underground experiencing a considerable revival in the mid eighteenth century with the rise of new antiestablishment religious denominations the occult spilled over into politics with the radicalism of the french revolution and into literature in early romanticism even when official disapproval was at its strongest the evidence points to a growing audience for occult publications as well as to subversive popular enthusiasm ultimately finds monod the occult was not discarded in favor of â œreasonâ but was incorporated into new forms of learning in that sense the occult is part of the modern world not simply a relic of an unenlightened past and is still with us today div div
