news following a surge of fake news clickbait and conspiracy theories the 2020s have ushered in a welter of existential threats for public service broadcasting so where do we go from here former today editor and head of bbc television news roger mosey thinks public service broadcasters must buck the trends and in this incisive book he offers twenty core ways in which the news can save itself by getting smarter sharper more diverse more nuanced and less exposed to pummelling by politicians mosey sees two possible futures one in which the incitements of populist demagogues and the passions of social media are ever dominant or one where we fight hard to retain media that has an interest in the public good and preserves truth fairness and evidence based judgements from one of british broadcasting s most experienced voices comes the definitive exploration of britain s news output and what must change if we are to avoid a future of uninspiring news uninformed decision making and accountability dodging politicians was it napoleon who first said good things come in small packages or someone in the jewelry industry whoever coined that phrase had the wisdom to realize that little things can make a big difference for the past 10 years as the entertainment anchor for cnn laurin sydney has been privy to the private lives of hollywood royalty where a wish is their command past the tall palms and long driveways of dreams lives a world filled with so much success and privilege where you would assume that anyone would be happy but happiness is not about that house on the hill it s about constructing a home in your heart this book is filled with joyful jolts and enlightening exercises for your home your relationships your kids your workplace and you for example you can make small simple gestures that may not help to establish world peace but that can bring peace and joy to your world one little chocolate kiss added to the lunchbox of a frightened first grader a package of dried chicken soup slipped inside a get well card for your sniffing sister a hanky with your perfume strategically placed in your honey s business luggage some apple tea for your daughter s teacher
